EXECUTIVES

JOHN MIDDLETON Managing Partner and Chief Executive Officer

John S. Middleton has been a limited partner of the Phillies ownership group since 1994. His family owns a 48 percent stake in the franchise. The Buck family owns an equal interest in the club. Middleton was designated the team's control person and managing partner in November 2016. In those roles, he is responsible for the overall operation of the club and its compliance with the MLB rules. In 2021, Middleton became one of the eight members of Major League Baseball's Executive Council. He also serves as chairman of MLB's Ownership Committee.

Middleton's primary focus for the organization is to set the franchise on course to contend for world championships and to preserve the club's reputation as a world-class organization both on and off the field. Middleton reinforced this goal by extending the contract of President of Baseball Operations David Dombrowski for an additional three years, through the 2027 season, after his success leading the club to its eighth pennant in franchise history in 2022.

John and his wife Leigh have been honored with the prestigious Philadelphia Award and have received additional recognition for their efforts to end chronic homelessness in Philadelphia through the work of Project HOME, on whose board of directors Leigh has long served. The Middletons also support education and workforce development through programmatic initiatives undertaken by the City of Philadelphia, the School District of Philadelphia, Drexel University, Philadelphia Youth Network and Philadelphia Academies. In 2022, Middleton was honored as Humanitarian of the Year by Magee Rehabilitation Hospital and Honoree of the Year by Valley Youth House.

As one of the Philadelphia region's most prominent leaders, Middleton has been included on the Philadelphia Business Journal's "Power List" since 2016.

Born in Havertown, Pa., Middleton graduated magna cum laude from Amherst College in 1977 with a B.S. degree in economics and from Harvard Business School in 1979 where he earned his MBA. He has served as a member of Amherst's board of trustees and a member of the board of trustees for Penn Medicine.

OWNERSHIP

The Phillies is a limited partnership formed in 1981. The Middleton and Buck families are equal partners while Pat Gillick and the Montgomery family own the remaining interests. No partner owns a majority of the team.

EXECUTIVES

DAVID DOMBROWSKI
President of Baseball Operations

David Dombrowski was hired as the Phillies' first-ever president of baseball operations on Dec. 11, 2020. Philadelphia marks his fifth organization in charge of a baseball operations department, following stints with the Montreal Expos (1988-91), Florida Marlins (1991-2001), Detroit Tigers (2001-15) and Boston Red Sox (2015-19). Throughout his distinguished career, David has built two World Series-winning teams in Florida (1997) and Boston (2018) and his clubs have won five pennants and seven division titles. This past season, when the Phillies captured their eighth National League pennant, David became the first head of baseball operations to lead four franchises to the World Series.

Prior to joining the Phillies, David had spent most of 2020 working with Music City Baseball, a group dedicated to bringing a Major League Baseball team to Nashville, Tenn. He began as a consultant and a member of the board of directors until being named president on Nov. 1, positions that he abdicated upon being hired by the Phillies.

Before Nashville, David's previous affiliation with a major league club resulted in a World Series win. He joined the Boston Red Sox as president of baseball operations on Aug. 18, 2015, a position he held until September 2019. From his hire date through the end of the 2018 season – when the Red Sox won the World Series – his club amassed the best record in all of Major League Baseball (320-210, .604). During his three full seasons in Boston (2016-19), the team won the American League East division title all three years, the first time in franchise history it had won AL East consecutive titles since the current alignment was established in 1969. The club's third consecutive division championship in 2018 came as the result of a single-season franchise-record 108 wins, eclipsing the previous record of 105 set in 1912, the first year at Fenway Park. Eleven more victories in the postseason gave Boston 119 for the year – the winningest season in club history.

Preceding David's time in Boston, he served as president, CEO & general manager of the Tigers from Nov. 5, 2001 until Aug. 4, 2015. During his tenure in Detroit, which spanned 14 seasons, his teams reached the postseason five times: first as the American League Wild Card winner in 2006, which snapped an 18-year playoff drought for the organization, and again with a franchise-record four consecutive AL Central Division titles from 2011-14. Detroit captured the AL pennant twice in that time frame, in 2006 and in 2012, with the former marking the team's first trip to the World Series since 1984.

The Phillies mark his first time helming a National League club since David spent 10 years as GM for the Marlins. His tenure there began in September 1991 when he was hired as the franchise's first-ever executive vice president and general manager. While at the helm in South Florida, David constructed the Marlins team that won the World Series title in 1997, just their fifth year of existence. Starting from their inaugural season in 1993 through 1997, the Marlins increased their winning percentage year over year, becoming the first-ever expansion team to do so. In 1998, the Marlins were honored by USA Today as Organization of the Year.

Before landing with the Marlins, David served the Expos for parts of five years (December 1986-September 1991) in a variety of front office roles, including director of the club's minor league system, assistant GM, vice president of player personnel and GM. He was 32 years old at the time of his appointment to GM prior to the 1990 season, the youngest chief baseball official in the major leagues at the time. Following the 1990 season, he was recognized as the UPI Major League Executive of the Year, and Baseball America acknowledged the Expos as Organization of the Year in both 1988 and 1990.

It was with the Chicago White Sox that David received his first baseball experience in 1978 under the tutelage of longtime baseball executive Roland Hemond. David spent four seasons working in the minor league and scouting department and in the player development department of the White Sox before being named assistant GM under Hemond in November 1981. He eventually was named vice president of baseball operations in December 1985.

In addition to his extensive accomplishments relating to on-field baseball performance, David has also been involved in areas off the field around the game. In April 2013, former Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig named him chairman of the Commissioner's On-Field Diversity Task Force, which addresses the talent pipeline that impacts the representation and development of diverse players and on-field personnel in Major League Baseball, particularly African Americans. While with the Tigers, also in 2013, he accepted the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence on behalf of the club for their Anti-Bullying community program.

Throughout his career, David has received numerous awards for his achievements in baseball, including Baseball America's Executive of the Year award in both 2006 and 2018. At MLB's annual General Managers Meetings, he has been recognized several times with the John Schuerholz Longevity Achievement Award for his years of service as a general manager and president of baseball operations, most recently in November 2018 for reaching 30 years in those roles. David was a co-recipient of The Sporting News' Executive of the Year Award with Milwaukee Brewers GM Doug Melvin in 2011 and received the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award the same year presented by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as AL Executive of the Year. In addition, he was named Sports Executive of the Year at the 10th annual March of Dimes National Athletic Awards dinner in February 1998. In January 2012, David was inducted into the Lou Boudreau Hall of Fame by the Pitch & Hit Club of Chicago.

A native of Chicago, David is a graduate of Richards High School in Oak Lawn, Ill. He attended Cornell University – where he played football – for one year, but later transferred to Western Michigan University, where he earned a degree in business administration in 1979. His alma mater recognized him with its Distinguished Alumni Award in 1998. David and his wife Karie have dual residences in Philadelphia and Nashville. The couple has two children, a daughter, Darbi, who is a recent graduate of the University of Oklahoma, and a son, Landon, a recent graduate of Wake Forest University.

2022 REVIEW

SEASON RECAP

The Phillies were National League champions for the eighth time in franchise history (1915, 1950, 1980, 1983, 1993, 2008, 2009, 2022) ... The road to the pennant began with a two-game sweep of the St. Louis Cardinals in the NL Wild Card Series at Busch Stadium, followed by a three-games-to-one NL Division Series win over the Atlanta Braves and a victory over the San Diego Padres, four games to one, in the National League Championship Series, clinching the series with three straight wins at Citizens Bank Park ... In the Fall Classic, the Phillies fell to the Houston Astros in six games; it was only the second postseason meeting between the two clubs, the first being the memorable 1980 NLCS.

REMEMBER THE FIGHTINS

On May 31, the Phillies were eight games under .500 at 21-29 with a .420 winning percentage that ranked 11th in the National League and 22nd in MLB ... Starting June 1, the Phillies went 66-46, 20 games over .500 with a .589 winning percentage that ranked 4th in the NL and 7th in baseball ... The Phillies clinched their first postseason berth since 2011 with a 3-0 win against the Astros on Oct. 3 ... The Phillies became only the fifth team in MLB history to start 21-29 or worse through their first 50 games and then make the World Series, joining the 2019 Washington Nationals (19-31 start), 2005 Houston Astros (18-32), 2003 Florida Marlins (21-29) and 1914 Boston Braves (20-30) ... Kyle Schwarber led the NL in home runs with 46, J.T. Realmuto became only the second catcher ever with a 20-home run/20-stolen base season and the Phillies starting rotation led the National League in fWAR at 17.5 for the first time since 2011.

GAME ONE

Philadelphia won the first game of all four postseason series, all on the road. The club is 19-7 all-time in Game 1 of a postseason series, and their .730 winning percentage in Game 1 ranks 2nd among all MLB clubs in history (min. 10 G) behind only BAL (17-6, .739) ... They are 10-2 (.833) all-time in Game 1's on the road and have won seven straight: Game 1 of the 2008 World Series at TB, Game 1 of the 2009 NLCS at LAD, Game 1 of the 2009 World Series at NYY, Game 1 of the 2022 NL Wild Card Series at STL, Game 1 of the 2022 NLDS at ATL, Game 1 of the 2022 NLCS at SD and Game 1 of the 2022 World Series at HOU ... Philadelphia's .833 winning percentage in Game 1's on the road is best among all MLB clubs in history (next: BAL, 7-2, .778) and they are only the second MLB club in history to win seven consecutive postseason Game 1's on the road, joining the San Francisco Giants (9 straight), Oct. 2, 2002-Oct. 5, 2016.

HATS OFF TO YOU, THOMS

Rob Thomson became only the fourth manager in MLB history to take over a team at least seven games under .500 and lead them to the postseason ... He joined Dick Howser in 1981 with the Royals, Cito Gaston in 1989 with the Blue Jays and Jim Tracy in 2009 with the Rockies ... Under Thomson during the regular season, the Phillies went 65-46 with a +61 run differential (517-456), a 20-11-4 record in series play and an 18-15 record in one-run games.

ROAD WARRIORS

After their final regular season home game on Sept. 25 against Atlanta, the Phillies left for Chicago (3G, 9/27-29), Washington (4G, 9/30-10/2) and Houston (3G, 10/3-5) ... Following their clinch in Houston, the Phillies were off to St. Louis to face the Cardinals for two games (10/7-8) in the NLWCS, then to Atlanta for the first two games of the NLDS ... They returned to Citizens Bank Park on Oct. 14 after 14 straight games on the road ... The Phillies were the first major league team to play 14 or more consecutive road games (regular season and postseason combined) since May 31-June 13, 2010, when the Los Angeles Angels played 14 straight away from home ... The last time the Phillies did so was June 13-26, 1983, when they were on the road for 15 straight games.

RUNNIN' DOWN A DREAM

The Phillies featured five different players who reached double digits in steals: J.T. Realmuto (21), Jean Segura (13), Bryson Stott (12), Bryce Harper (11) and Kyle Schwarber (10) ... Philadelphia's five players with 10+ steals were tied for the most of any club in baseball (also: LAD, CLE and TEX) and were their most since 2001 when Jimmy Rollins (46), Bobby Abreu (36), Doug Glanville (28), Scott Rolen (16) and Brian Hunter (14) did so.

ON THE PLUS SIDE

The Phillies had four different players with an OPS+ of 120 or greater (min. 400 PA) ... Bryce Harper led the Phillies with a 145 OPS+, Kyle Schwarber was 2nd on the club at 130, J.T. Realmuto ranked 3rd at 129 and Rhys Hoskins was 4th at 122 ... HISTORY

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

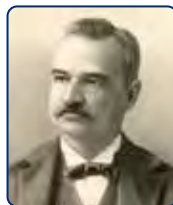

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

FIRST PHILLIES GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th Street and Columbia Avenue. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 2,155 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 155 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 15-9 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics, under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first president to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three future Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of du Pont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on Nov. 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976, but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two future Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies defeated the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on Sept. 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games remaining to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year, the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on Oct. 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, an estimated 2 million fans attended the parade down Broad Street. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

In 2009, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. It was the club's fifth appearance in the Fall Classic in 30 years, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, four games to two.

The Phillies recorded a franchise-record 102 victories in 2011 and for the second time in as many seasons, they led the majors in wins, a first in club history. That year also brought the team's run of consecutive division titles to five, tied with the Oakland Athletics and Cleveland Indians for the fourth-longest streak in the Divisional Era (since 1969) among all major league teams, trailing only the Braves (14), Yankees (9) and Dodgers (8).

Fan support at Citizens Bank Park has been strong since the ballpark opened in 2004. Through their first 10 seasons at the ballpark, the club drew better than 3 million fans eight different times, including the record-setting mark of 3,680,718 in 2011. Highlighting that run was a streak of 257 consecutive regular-season sellouts at Citizens Bank Park from July 7, 2009 through Aug. 5, 2012.

From the 1950 pennant-winners to the great 1976-83 era to the 2007-11 run, one theme has been common throughout: homegrown talent. Whether it was Richie Ashburn, Robin Roberts and Del Ennis or Mike Schmidt, Larry Bowa and Greg Luzinski or Chase Utley, Jimmy Rollins and Ryan Howard, the Phillies have largely had their greatest successes relying on their scouting and player development.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2022 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES

PHILLIES VS. ATLANTA BRAVES

(Phillies win series, 3 games to 1)

Game 1 – October 11

The Phillies, led by Nick Castellanos' huge performance, won 7-6. Castellanos drove in three runs, going 3-for-5 with a double, and made a potential game-saving sliding catch in right field in the bottom of the ninth. Bryce Harper added a three-hit effort of his own and Alec Bohm drove in two runs as the Phillies jumped to a 1-0 series lead.

Phillies	7	12	0	HR: Olson, d'Arnaud
Atlanta	6	9	1	Att: 42,641

Game 2 – October 12

Atlanta evened the series at one game apiece behind Kyle Wright and the bullpen, who combined to shut out the Phillies, 3-0. Wright allowed only three base runners in 6.0 innings and was followed by scoreless frames from A.J. Minter, Raisel Iglesias and Kenley Jansen. Atlanta managed only four hits, but three of them were RBI singles in the sixth inning.

	R	H	E	WP: Wright; LP: Wheeler
Phillies	0	3	0	SV: Jansen
Atlanta	3	4	0	HR: None
				Att: 42,735

Game 3 – October 14

In their first home playoff game in 11 years, the Phillies' bats exploded for nine runs, six of which came in the third inning. Bryson Stott started the scoring with an RBI double down the right field line and two batters later, Rhys Hoskins crushed a three-run homer to left to put the Phillies up 4-0. Bryce Harper put the exclamation point on the inning with a two-run shot of his own. Aaron Nola became the first Phillie ever to pitch at least 6.0 innings and allow no earned runs in each of his first two career postseason starts.

Phillies	9	8	2	Att: 45,538

Game 4 – October 15

Another burst of offense propelled the Phillies to a 3-1 series win, and their first trip to the NLCS since 2010. Brandon Marsh put the Phillies on top with a three-run homer in the second inning – one of three home runs on the day for the club – and they would never surrender the lead. J.T. Realmuto hit the first inside-the-park home run in Phillies postseason history. Every Phillies starter reached base at least once and six different Phillies pitchers combined to hold the Braves' offense to three solo home runs.

2022 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

PHILLIES VS. SAN DIEGO PADRES

(Phillies win series, 4 games to 1)

Game 1 – October 18

Two solo home runs were all the offense needed to earn a 1-0 series lead. Bryce Harper's fourth-inning shot was the winning run, and Kyle Schwarber's 488-foot blast in the sixth was the farthest homer of his career. Zack Wheeler tossed 7.0 shutout innings with one hit allowed.

	R	H	E	WP: Wheeler; LP: Darvish
Phillies	2	3	1	SV: Alvarado
San Diego	0	1	0	HR: Harper, Schwarber
				Att: 44,826

Game 2 – October 19

The Phillies jumped to a four-run lead in the second, but San Diego responded with two in the bottom half of the inning and five more in the fifth to erase the deficit and ultimately even the series. The Padres clubbed three home runs and the bullpen combined for 4.0 innings of one-run ball, the lone blemish a solo homer from Rhys Hoskins.

Game 3 – October 21

Kyle Schwarber set the tone in the momentum-shifting Game 3 with a leadoff homer and the Phillies later received a go-ahead, two-run single from Jean Segura and RBI double from Alec Bohm. Ranger Suárez earned his first career postseason victory, delivering 5.0 innings with two runs allowed on two hits.

Game 4 – October 22

Sparked by a Manny Machado home run, the Padres scored four times in the first to take an early lead. But the Phillies struck for three in the bottom of the inning (two on a Rhys Hoskins home run), knocking starter Mike Clevinger from the game. The battle of the bullpens went the way of the Phillies as six Phils relievers combined for 8.1 innings with just two runs allowed.

San Diego	6	8	0	HR: Hoskins (2), Schwarber,
Phillies	10	11	0	Realmuto; Machado, Soto
				Att: 45,467

Game 5 – October 23

A dramatic go-ahead home run in the eighth inning off the bat of Bryce Harper secured the National League pennant for the eighth time in club history. Trailing 3-2 in a game marred by rain, Harper took Robert Suarez's 2-2 pitch out of the ballpark to give the Phillies the lead. Ranger Suárez, who entered with two runners on base in the ninth, nailed down the save. Rhys Hoskins homered for the fourth time in the series but Harper's late-game heroics earned him NLCS MVP.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

2022 WORLD SERIES PHILLIES VS. HOUSTON ASTROS (Astros win series, 4 games to 2)

Game 1 – October 28

Trailing 5-0 after three innings, the Phillies mounted their largest comeback in club postseason history, scoring five runs off eventual Cy Young winner Justin Verlander and a sixth unanswered run to win the game in 10 innings. J.T. Realmuto drove in three runs, one of which was the winning run on an opposite-field homer in extras. The Phillies bullpen combined for 5.2 scoreless innings to hold the Astros bats in check.

	R	H	E	WP: Dominguez; LP: Garcia
Phillies	6	9	0	SV: Robertson
Houston	5	10	0	HR: Realmuto; Tucker
				Att: 42,903

Game 2 – October 29

Three straight doubles to begin the game jump-started the Astros, who took a 5-0 lead for the second straight night. Alex Bregman hit his first homer of the postseason in the fifth and Framber Valdez allowed just one run and struck out nine in 6.1 innings of work. The Phillies scored a run in both the seventh and ninth but were unable to mount the comeback as Houston evened the series, 1-1.

	R	H	E	WP: Valdez; LP: Wheeler
Phillies	2	6	1	HR: Bregman
Houston	5	7	2	Att: 42,926

Game 3 – November 1

After Halloween rain forced a postponement of Game 3 by a day, the Phillies were clicking on all cylinders as they tied a World Series record with five home runs – all off starter Lance McCullers Jr. – in a 7-0 shutout win. Bryce Harper started the scoring with a two-run shot on the first pitch he saw, and was followed by home runs from Alec Bohm, Brandon Marsh, Rhys Hoskins and Kyle Schwarber. Bohm's was the 1,000th homer in World Series history. Ranger Suárez pitched 5.0 shutout innings and the bullpen followed with 4.0 scoreless frames.

Houston	0	5	0	HR: Harper, Bohm, Marsh,
Phillies	7	7	0	Hoskins, Schwarber
				Att: 45,712

Game 4 – November 2

Led by starter Cristian Javier, who allowed just two walks and struck out nine in 6.0 innings, the Astros combined to throw the second no-hitter in World Series history. Bryan Abreu, Rafael Montero and Ryan Pressly sealed the game, and a 2-2 series tie, in relief of Javier. All five of Houston's runs came in the fifth inning.

	R	H	E	WP: Javier; LP: Nola

Phillies	0	0	0	Att: 45,693

Game 5 – November 3

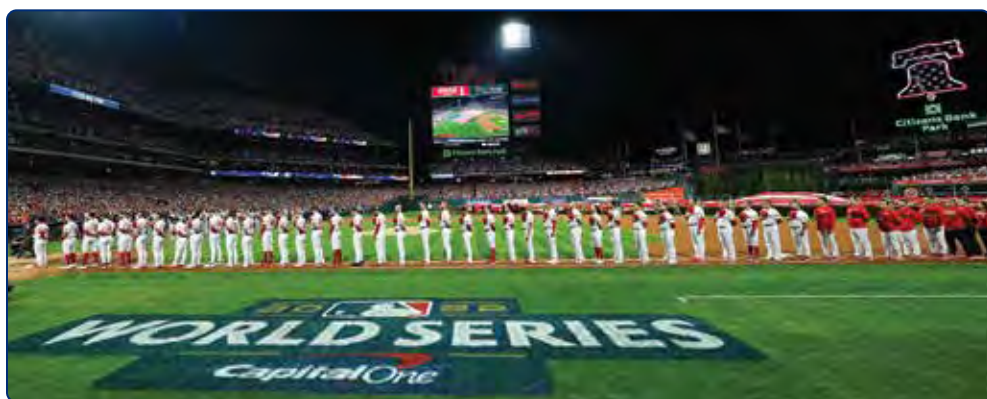

Kyle Schwarber energized the crowd with a leadoff home run, but the Phillies did not score again until the eighth inning, while Houston sent three across the plate. The Phillies had chances to tie the game or go ahead late, but two great defensive plays on hard-hit balls by Kyle Schwarber and J.T. Realmuto shut down any potential rally. Justin Verlander earned his first career World series win as the Astros took a 3-2 series lead.

Game 6 – November 5

For the second straight day, Kyle Schwarber gave the Phillies a 1-0 lead with a solo home run, this time breaking the ice in the sixth inning of a pitcher's duel between Framber Valdez and Zack Wheeler. But the Astros tied the game in the bottom of the inning, and with two on and one out, Yordan Alvarez hit a mammoth home run to center off José Alvarado to put Houston up, 4-1. The bullpen held on in relief to capture the second-ever title for the Astros in what was the latest-ending Fall Classic in MLB history.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Commissioner Rob Manfred and until 2019 the late Vera Clemente, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. Winners from each club are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978, Garry Maddox in 1986, and Jimmy Rollins shared the honor in 2014 with Paul Konerko. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken Jr. and Andrew McCutchen.

AWARDS

Bill Giles

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman and then was named chairman emeritus in 2015.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball in the Phillies organization. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

AWARDS

JOHN VUKOVICH AWARD

Started in 2007, the John Vukovich Award is presented annually to an instructor in the Phillies organization who embodies the characteristics of the award's namesake: loyalty, dedication, competitiveness, knowledge, honesty and a terrific work ethic.

"Vuk" took great pride in wearing a baseball uniform and playing the game the right way. His dedication to the game and the Phillies was endless.

He spent 30 of his 41 years in baseball as a member of the Phillies organization. With 17 years on the coaching staff, he is the longest tenured coach in team history and one of the most respected persons to ever wear a Phillies uniform.

To honor the accomplishments of Dallas Green, a longtime fixture in the Phillies organization, the club established the Dallas Green Scout of the Year Award in 2011. This annual award is presented to the amateur or professional scout who best exemplifies the Phillies' standard for scouting while demonstrating the same loyalty, work ethic, dedication and passion as the award's namesake. It also recognizes the scout's ability to judge not only a player's talent, but also his character and heart.

Over his distinguished career, which encompassed 62 years in baseball, including 46 with the Phillies, Green served in almost every capacity in the game, including player, scout, manager, general manager, senior advisor and club executive.

RICHIE ASHBURN & DAVID MONTGOMERY SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Established in 1998 in honor of the memory of Richie Ashburn, who spent nearly 50 years with the Phillies, the award is given annually to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated the same loyalty, dedication and passion for the game as the award's namesake. In 2018, the award was renamed the Richie Ashburn & David Montgomery Special Achievement Award. Montgomery, who passed away in May 2019, embodied the spirit of the award over his accomplished 49-year Phillies career.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Left Field Plaza behind the scoreboard building. Toyota is the sponsor of the Wall of Fame.

Phillies executives, players, managers and coaches with four or more years of service are eligible.

With rare exception, all candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, character, and contributions to the Phillies and baseball, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their longtime manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

Other winners include former Philadelphia Inquirer writers James Isaminger (1974), Allen Lewis (1981), Claire Smith (2017) and Jayson Stark (2019); Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988); Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992); Bill Conlin from the Philadelphia Daily News (2011); and Paul Hagen (2013), who wrote for the Daily News for 25 years before joining MLB.com.

BBWAA AWARDS

In 2004, the Philadelphia Chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America introduced four awards that were presented to Phillies players at the end of every season. A fifth award was added in 2014, the Charlie Manuel Award for Service and Passion to Baseball, given to former broadcaster and club ambassador Chris Wheeler. The awards were discontinued in 2015.

PAUL OWENS AWARD WINNERS

The Phillies selected infielder Darick Hall and right-handed pitcher Andrew Painter as the recipients of the 2022 Paul Owens Award, presented annually to the organization's top minor league player and pitcher.

Hall posted a .254/.330/.528 slash line (.858 OPS) with 24 doubles, 28 home runs, 88 RBI and 59 runs in 101 games with triple-A Lehigh Valley in 2022. The left-handed slugger was named the Phillies Minor League Hitter of the Month in April and earned back-to-back International League Player of the Week honors. Hall had the following rankings in the IL: third in slugging percentage, seventh in OPS, tied for third in home runs, fourth in RBI and seventh in extra-base hits (52). Hall made his major league debut on June 29 against Atlanta and became the first Phillies player in the modern era (since 1900) to hit at least four home runs in his first eight career games, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

Painter went 6-2 with a 1.56 ERA (18 ER, 103.2 IP) and 0.89 WHIP in 22 combined starts with single-A Clearwater (9), high-A Jersey Shore (8) and double-A Reading (5). He recorded 155 strikeouts to 25 walks (6.20 SO/BB ratio) and held opponents to a .181 batting average (67-371) while allowing just five home runs to the 401 batters he faced. Painter, who led all Phillies minor league pitchers in strikeouts, averaged 13.46 strikeouts per 9.0 innings and had a 38.7 percent strikeout rate compared to a 6.2 percent walk rate. He made his final five starts of the season with Reading, posting a 2.54 ERA (8 ER, 28.1 IP) with 37 strikeouts to two walks. In his 22 starts overall, he tossed at least 6.0 innings eight times. Additionally, Painter was the first Phillies minor league pitcher to post a sub-1.60 ERA (min. 100.0 IP) with at least 145 strikeouts in a season since left-hander Cole Hamels did so in 2003.

GENERAL INFORMATION

PHILLIES BROADCASTERS

TOM MCCARTHY

Now in his 23rd season in the big leagues, Tom McCarthy is in the 16th year of his second tour of duty with the Phillies doing television play-by-play. In his first stint with the club, he spent five seasons (2001-05) as the host of the pre- and postgame radio shows, while also doing radio play-by-play. He also hosted his own weekday afternoon-drive show on ESPN Radio 920 AM, which concentrated on local sports. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as a radio broadcaster with the New York Mets on WFAN before returning to the Phillies in November 2007.

A graduate of The College of New Jersey (BA degree in communications), Tom spent six seasons with the Trenton Thunder, the former double-A affiliate of the Boston Red Sox. He was hired as director of public and media relations in 1993 and promoted to assistant general manager in 1996, while also working as one of the team's broadcasters, doing play-by-play on radio and television for CN8.

After the 1999 season, Tom left the Thunder to pursue a full-time career in broadcasting, creating the first local-driven show on ESPN Radio 1680 AM. He also used to work national shows for ESPN Radio.

Tom has done extensive broadcasting for collegiate sports in his career. He currently does NFL games for CBS, baseball for FOX, basketball and college football play-by-play for CBS College Sports Network (formerly CSTV) and NFL and college basketball games for Westwood One, after three years of doing NFL games with Sports USA Radio. Previously, he worked as the radio voice of the Saint Joseph's University men's basketball team (2004-09) and the play-by-play voice for Rutgers University football (2001-03), as well as Princeton University football (1995-2000) and men's basketball (1995-2003).

In 2000, Tom earned a Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award for his work on CN8 and is a two-time winner (2002 & 2004) of the Achievement in Radio Award for Best Local Sports Coverage. He also received the Radio/TV Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in January 2007 and the Good Guy Award in 2009. He was inducted into the Trenton Baseball Hall of Fame in the summer of 2011 and had the radio booth at Trenton's Waterfront Park named after him. Additionally, he was named the 2013 Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association and was inducted into the Irish American Baseball Hall of Fame in June 2019. In March 2022, Tom received the Bob Vetrone Award, which recognizes those whose service, professionalism and commitment have made a lasting contribution to the student-athletes and institutions of the Atlantic 10 Conference.

Born in Jersey City, N.J., Tom and his wife Meg live in Allentown, N.J. They have two sons, Patrick and Tommy, and two daughters, Maggie and Kerri. Patrick, a broadcaster for the New York Mets, filled in for his dad for a few games in 2021-22 when he was with triple-A Lehigh Valley.

JOHN KRUK

One of the most popular and colorful players in Phillies history, John Kruk rejoined the club's broadcast team in January 2017. He had previously been a color analyst for the team in 2003, the final season at Veterans Stadium.

Prior to rejoining the Phillies broadcast team, John spent 13 years with ESPN as both a color commentator on "Sunday Night Baseball" and a studio analyst for "Baseball Tonight." He also worked for FOX and co-hosted "The Best Damn Sports Show Period." In 2001, he was a hitting coach for the Phillies' double-A team in Reading, Pa., before transitioning to a role assisting the club with suite sales for Citizens Bank Park. John also acted in several films, including the baseball-themed movie, The Fan, starring Robert DeNiro and Wesley Snipes.

John played 10 years in the major leagues, six of them with the Phillies, and was a member of the 1993 National League championship team when he posted career bests with a .316 batting average and a .430 on-base percentage. He made three consecutive All-Star teams (1991-93) as a Phillie, which included a memorable at-bat against future Hall of Famer Randy Johnson at the 1993 Midsummer Classic.

The San Diego Padres selected John in the third round of the 1981 draft. At the major league level, he played for the Padres (1986-89), Phillies (1989-94) and Chicago White Sox (1995). John finished his playing career with a .300 batting average, a .397 on-base percentage, 199 doubles, 100 home runs and 592 RBI in 1,200 games.

In 2003, John was selected to the All-Vet Team, which honored the best Phillies to play each position at Veterans Stadium, and he was inducted into the Phillies Wall of Fame in 2011.

BEN DAVIS

Ben Davis enters his ninth season in the booth after joining the Phillies broadcast team in February 2015. He previously spent four years as an in-studio baseball analyst for NBC Sports Philadelphia and made occasional appearances on 94.1 WIP's morning show.

A local product, Ben was selected by the San Diego Padres as the second overall pick in the 1995 draft out of Malvern Preparatory School and went on to have a seven-year major league career with the Padres (1998-2001), Seattle Mariners (2002-04) and Chicago White Sox (2004). Ben converted to pitcher for the final three seasons (2008-10) of his professional career, spent with single-A Sarasota in the Cincinnati Reds organization and the Camden Riversharks of the independent Atlantic League.

Ben currently resides in West Chester, Pa., with his wife Megan and their four children.

RUBEN AMARO JR.

Over the past four decades, Ruben Amaro Jr. has held several positions with the Phillies – general manager, assistant general manager, player, bat boy and now color analyst. Ruben joined the broadcast team in 2020 for select Phillies telecasts and had his role expanded for the 2021 season. In addition, he joined MLB Network as an on-air analyst in March 2022.

A Philadelphia native, Ruben was a batboy for the Phillies from 1980-83 when his father, Ruben Sr., a former shortstop with the club, was first base coach. He is a 1983 graduate of the William Penn Charter School, where he played both baseball and soccer. In 1987, he earned a bachelor's degree in human biology from Stanford University and was a member of the NCAA championship baseball team.

After being selected by the Angels in the 11th round of the June 1987 draft, Ruben made his major league debut with the club in 1991. Following that season, he was traded to his hometown Phillies, where he spent five of his final seven big league seasons (1992-93, 96-98). His only time away was 1994-95, when he played for Cleveland. Ruben played for two league champions – the pennant-winning 1993 Phillies and the 1995 Cleveland club that captured the AL crown. In 1996, he ranked third among National League pinch-hitters with a .387 average.

At the conclusion of the 1998 season, Ruben moved into the Phillies front office as assistant general manager and held that position through 2008 under both Ed Wade and future Hall of Famer Pat Gillick. After the Phillies' World Series win in 2008, Gillick transitioned into a new role and Ruben succeeded him as GM.

In his first year as GM, the Phillies won the NL pennant, making it to the seventh World Series in club history, and the team's 93 wins were the most in 16 years (97 wins in 1993). Following the season, Ruben was named Executive of the Year by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association (PSWA) and the Phillies were honored as both the Team of the Year by the PSWA and Organization of the Year by Baseball America. Over a two-year span (2010-11), he constructed a team that had the best records (97-65 and 102-60, respectively) in the major leagues. Prior to 2010, the Phillies had never posted the best record over the course of a major league season.

Ruben left the Phillies toward the end of the 2015 season and spent the next three years as first base coach and outfield instructor for the Boston Red Sox (2016-17) and New York Mets (2018). He worked as a scout for the Mets in 2019.

Ruben lives in Philadelphia with his partner Lori and has two daughters, Andrea and Sophia.

MIKE SCHMIDT

Hall of Famer Mike Schmidt had his role with the Phillies expanded in 2014 when he returned to the Phillies broadcast booth for Sunday home games. From 2015-18, he also worked Saturday home telecasts. Mike previously worked as a Phillies broadcaster during the 1990 season.

PHILLIES BROADCASTERS

SCOTT FRANZKE

Scott Franzke is entering his 17th season as the Phillies' main play-by-play commentator for radio broadcasts. He made his Phillies debut in 2006, when he was named the pre- and postgame host for Phillies radio broadcasts and did radio play-by-play in the middle innings. In 2007, he took over as the main play-by-play commentator for Phillies radio broadcasts, working with Larry Andersen. The duo was honored at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, winning for Best Live Sports Event Coverage in 2007 and 2008. Additionally, they received the Bill Campbell Award for excellence in local broadcasting from the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association in 2017. Scott was also the winner of the 2010 and 2015 Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year Award, given by the National Sportscasters and Sports Writers Association.

A 1994 graduate of Southern Methodist University (SMU) with a degree in broadcast journalism, Scott began his radio career as a talk show host with Prime Sports Radio, a national all-sports radio network based in Dallas. He worked for two seasons as the part-time pre- and postgame host for his hometown Texas Rangers (1997-98) before becoming the voice of the Kane County Cougars, a single-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins (1999-2001). In 2000, Scott covered the Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia, for Sporting News Radio. He spent four years (2002-05) in his second stint with the Rangers as the full-time studio host of the pre- and postgame shows and fill-in play-by-play announcer, winning the 2003 Katie Award for Best Radio Play-by-Play Sportscast from the Press Club of Dallas.

Scott was born in Dallas, Texas, and currently lives in Gladwyne, Pa., with his wife Lori, son Gus and twin daughters Loretta and June.

LARRY ANDERSEN

Larry Andersen is in his 26th season serving as a color analyst for Phillies games, making him the club's longest-tenured active broadcaster. He chose to reduce his schedule in 2018 and now calls mostly home games, along with select road series.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008, he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category. In 2017, the duo was honored with the Bill Campbell Award for excellence in local broadcasting by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with Cleveland (1975-79), Seattle (1981-82), Houston (1986-90), Boston (1990), San Diego (1991-92) and two stints with the Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known for being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for future Hall of Famer Jeff Bagwell in August 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993, and also appeared in the ALCS twice, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (32.2 IP), set in 1984. It is also the third-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.0 scoreless innings in 1911 and Cliff Lee's 34.0-inning streak in 2011.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Bellevue, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by Cleveland in the seventh round and made his major league debut with the club in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (1997). He also served as a guest instructor at Phillies spring training for five years (2013-17).

Born in Portland, Ore., Larry has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase. He and his wife Kristi live in Philadelphia.

PUBLIC ADDRESS ANNOUNCER

Dan Baker has the distinction of being the longest-tenured public address announcer in Major League Baseball, an honor he achieved in 2008. After missing the 2020 season due to health concerns, the 2023 season will be his 51st with the Phillies after starting with the team in 1972.

During his 50 years, Dan has been the on-field voice of the Phillies for nearly 4,000 games, including six World Series and two All-Star Games in two ballparks, Veterans Stadium and Citizens Bank Park. Dan also served as the PA announcer for the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles for 29 years (1985-2013) without missing a regular season or postseason game. He announced three NFC Championship games (2002-04) and each Army-Navy game that has been played at Lincoln Financial Field.

Away from the professional ranks, Dan has been the play-by-play voice for Big 5 basketball (1977-98), Drexel University basketball (1997-2012), Temple University football (1977-83) and University of Pennsylvania football (1986-88). As executive secretary, Dan helped preserve the Philadelphia Big 5 basketball tradition from 1981 through 1996. In 1997, he was inducted into the Big 5 Basketball Hall of Fame, one of six local sports Halls of Fame in which he is enshrined. He was inducted into the Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia Hall of Fame in November 2019. In March 2022, he was honored by Coaches vs. Cancer with the Dinsmore Award, given annually to an inspiring cancer survivor in the Philadelphia basketball community. Most recently, Dan was honored by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association in January 2023 with a Lifetime Achievement Award and Most Courageous Person Award.

Since 2008, Dan has co-hosted the "Bull Session" with Phillies Wall of Famer Greg Luzinski every Monday during the baseball season on WBCB 1490 AM.

Dan and his wife Cathy – a former Phillies employee – live in West Deptford, N.J. They have two children, Darren and Courtney.

CLUBHOUSES

Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's postgame media conference, are held in this room.

PRESS BOX

The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Relations Workroom and library, is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

ELEVATOR

An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY

A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS

Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.

MEDIA RELATIONS WORKROOM

Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Relations Workroom that contains a copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pre-game. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the Workroom. See a Baseball Communications representative for access to the Media Relations Workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Relations Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

PHOTO WORKROOM

The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

CREDENTIALS

Working press credentials or Baseball Writers' Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room).

LOST CREDENTIALS

Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to submit a $25 check to The Phillies, prior to being issued a new credential.

ACCESS TO CLUBHOUSES

Both clubhouses will be open to the media for 50 minutes before the start of the game, in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations, at a time determined by the Baseball Communications staff. The Phillies clubhouse is closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice. For day games, the clubhouse is also closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice and/or 45 minutes prior to game time. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse. Absolutely no transmitting (phone calls/texts/e-mails/social media updates) is allowed in the clubhouse.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY

2023 MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA DRESS CODE

In accordance with a MLB directive, media covering games and MLB events are asked to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and the Phillies, as well as MLB, expect members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to follow these guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in the press area
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
 - Sheer or see-through clothing
 - Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
 - Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
 - Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

PRESS BOX SEATING

Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

INTERNET

PRESS DINING ROOM

Located behind the Press Box, the Press Dining Room opens one and a half hours prior to game time. The meal price is $10, and food is served until 30 minutes after the start of the game. The beverage area remains open during the game and postgame. Children and friends are prohibited.

SMOKING

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Through both Phillies Charities, Inc. and the club's ongoing community outreach efforts, the Phillies have a continued presence in the community throughout the year.

Phillies Charities, Inc. is the charitable arm of the Phillies organization, serving Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, as well as areas near the Phillies' minor league affiliates. Continued fan support enables fundraisers, including the Phantastic Auction ▶, Phillies Charities 50/50 Drawing presented by DraftKings, Phillies Charities 5K and many memorabilia auctions, to contribute largely to a Phillies Charities Grant Fund. Grants are awarded on a regular basis to primarily local organizations serving a wide variety of needs. In 2022, more than $925,000 in grants was distributed – 37 to Phillies Community Heroes, nonprofit organizations which provide vital resources to those in need and more than a dozen to Phillies community partners.

The Phillies Wives are committed to giving back and lending their time and efforts to support local charities. Each year, several of the Phillies Wives serve on the board of Phillies Charities and work together to represent the club on charitable projects or fundraisers such as Phillies Wives Save a Pet at the Park and the My Favorite Things auction.

Phillies players lend their support by connecting with individuals, groups and families throughout the year:

Kyle Schwarber shows his appreciation for frontline heroes and first responders through his community ticket program, ◀ Schwarber's Neighborhood Heroes. Throughout the season, groups including local police officers, firefighters and military veterans are treated to special experiences at Citizens Bank Park.

Supporters of the Muscular Dystrophy Association for nearly 20 years, Jayme and Rhys Hoskins team up to host an annual "Go Yard" fundraiser while also spending time meeting with patients throughout the year.

After losing their uncle to ALS, Aaron Nola and his brother Austin help to raise awareness for those battling the disease. Together they host an annual Strike Out ALS event in their hometown of Baton Rouge, La.

The Phillies lend their help to Philadelphia Futures for their annual Get in the Game fundraiser. Over the last 20+ years, the fundraiser has raised over $2.5 million to support the college aspirations of Philadelphia Futures scholars.

The Phillies support over 6,000 youth baseball and softball players through the RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) program. Uniforms, equipment and instructional clinics are just some of the resources provided to local leagues. Additionally, webinars are provided for RBI players and coaches that cover video coaching clinics, player skill development, body care and work ethic. The Jr. RBI League is sponsored by Citizens while the RBI League is sponsored by Nike and Richman's Ice Cream.

The Phillies MLB Urban Youth Academy provides free, year-round instruction to RBI participants in Philadelphia through both the baseball and softball fields in FDR Park and the Ryan Howard Training Center. Throughout the year, webinars and in-classroom and on-field programming are held by instructors and members of the Phillies organization to help develop players on and off the field. Programming includes a leadership course instructed by Umps Care Charities, offseason workouts, position-specific instructional work and education on the college recruitment process for high school athletes looking to further their baseball or softball careers.

Each year, the Carpenter Cup Classic presented by Nike gives participants from local high schools the chance to showcase their skills in front of scouts and college coaches.

Over 10,000 children participate in the annual Phillies Home Run Derby presented by Berkshire Hathaway Fox & Roach, a baseball and softball hitting contest for boys and girls aged 7-12. Participants advance through local and regional competitions to reach the championship.

The Phillies host a variety of free educational programs for the local community. Phanatic About Reading ▶, presented by Xfinity, encourages students in grades PreK-8 to read for a minimum of 15 minutes per day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. Phillies Phtness, presented by The GIANT Company, encourages children of all ages to start on the path to a healthy future through exercise and smart food choices. Through a partnership with the City of Philadelphia Parks & Recreation Department, Phillies Phundamentals, sponsored by Chick-fil-A Greater Philadelphia, uses baseball to teach and reinforce academic skills to children during the summer months. Summer Slugger is a continuous and engaging experience focusing on math and literacy skills to encourage students to stay on track when school is not in session. The All-Star Students contest recognizes students who went above and beyond during the school year, while the work of area educators is highlighted annually through Teacher Appreciation Night, powered by Constellation. Citizens Weather Education Day, presented by NBC10/Telemundo62, is an educational experience focused on weather that is enjoyed by thousands of children each year.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The Phillies continue to work with Aramark and OVG360 on the Red Goes Green program. Through Home Runs for Trees, a partnership with PGW and the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, over 1,700 trees have been planted in the Delaware Valley. In addition, over 200 trees have been donated to community groups and schools as part of a contest. Food waste from Phillies kitchens is donated to W.B. Saul High School's Henry Got Compost program.

Since 2011, Phans Feeding Families ▶, the hunger relief partnership between the Phillies, Aramark, Citizens, Goya Foods, Hatfield Quality Meats, KPMG, SEPTA, The GIANT Company, Toyota and Philabundance, has raised more than $575,000 and provided more than one million meals to people in need throughout the Greater Philadelphia area.

Making numerous community appearances throughout the year, the ◀ Phillies Ballgirls are ambassadors for the team both on and off the field. At home games, the Ballgirls act as captains of the Red Goes Green Team, presented by Waste Management. They also engage with youth softball players through clinics and host a Christmas in July toy drive each year, with toys being donated to organizations throughout the community during the holiday season.

In conjunction with Minding Your Mind and presented by Kitay Law Offices, Strike Out the Stigma is a program focused on bringing important conversations to the forefront about the value of healthy life habits, supporting those around us and removing the negative connotations surrounding mental health.

The Phillies are committed to honoring all the men and women who have served or continue to serve our country. Military appreciation is celebrated annually during the Salute to Service Day presented by Toyota, First Responders Day presented by Toyota and Memorial Day. A recently unveiled American Gold Star Mothers Chair of Honor is permanently located in Section 137. The unoccupied seat pays tribute to every mother who lost a son or daughter during active service and is dedicated to the memory of their loved ones.

Each season, the Phillies partner with Major League Baseball in supporting a variety of initiatives and holidays, including Armed Forces Day, Childhood Cancer Awareness Day ▶, Father's Day, Hispanic Heritage Month, Independence Day, Jackie Robinson Day, Lou Gehrig Day, Memorial Day, Mother's Day, Play Ball Weekend, Roberto Clemente Day, September 11th Remembrance and Spirit Day.

Through the 2022 Fall Classic Legacy initiative, MLB and the Phillies partnered to make a $50,000 donation to the Police Athletic League (PAL). Funds are being used to create an e-gaming room at the 24th Center PAL.

The Phillies and The GIANT Company team up to host the annual Summer of Giving, which features a week of charitable events. Recent events included an employee volunteer project at MANNNA, Phillies Charities Summer Flash Sale, Mickey Morandini's Corn Hole Classic and Project HOME Bingo Night.

The annual ◀ Season of Giving provides a way for the Phillies front office to give back during the offseason. Recent events included a Phillies family giving drive, a holiday party for children at Ford PAL, a holiday luncheon at Bethesda Project, a welcome home surprise for a child battling cancer, a holiday surprise at Magee Rehabilitation Hospital and a toy drop off at CBS3 benefitting Mothers In Charge and The Salvation Army.

Throughout the year, the Phillies Give Back program offers volunteer opportunities and encourages members of the front office to get involved in the local community. Opportunities have included hosting athletes from Special Olympics ▶ for a bocce ball tournament and a fall cleanup at David P. Montgomery Field.

The Phillies are committed to diversity, equity and inclusion and fostering an inclusive culture. The Phillies support and provide Commissioner's Initiative tickets to organizations in the Philadelphia region that serve diverse communities and celebrate the history and culture of underrepresented groups during special events and theme nights throughout the year. In addition, the Phillies host conversations on important topics, including Juneteenth and Athletics and Activism, and team up with local and national groups such as The Players Alliance and PHL Diversity. Philadelphia's rich LGBTQ+ culture is celebrated annually at Pride Night presented by The GIANT Company.

Our work in the community would not be possible without the dedication and support of the many partners and fans who support our mission. Learn more about the Phillies in the community and how you can get involved by visiting phillies.com/community.

CITIZENS BANK PARK FACTS

After 33 years at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies moved into their new state-of-the-art facility, Citizens Bank Park, in 2004. The world-class ballpark – rated one of the best in the country – opened on April 3, 2004, with an exhibition game against Cleveland. Since that time, the Phillies have captured a World Series championship (2008), three National League pennants (2008-09, 2022) and five consecutive NL East titles (2007-11), while countless records have been broken both on and off the field.

ACCESSIBILITY: Excellent regional highway access for vehicles and Broad Street Subway Line for public transportation.

ACRES: 21-acre site, north side of Pattison Avenue between Citizens Bank Way and Darien Street.

ADA-FOCUSED DESIGN: With the help of an Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) consultant, the park was designed to be universally accessible and comfortable for all fans with disabilities.

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6-6; WT: 300

AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978

BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phillie Phanatic was created by the team's marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot evolved and is celebrated as part of a permanent exhibit in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. Over the years, various national media outlets have ranked the Phanatic as the No. 1 sports mascot.

Often featured on sports highlight shows, in recent years he stepped into prime time with appearances on the NBC television show "30 Rock" and ABC's "The Goldbergs" and "Schooled." He's also visited the sets of NBC's "Today," "Good Morning America," "CBS This Morning," and ESPN's "SportsCenter" and "College GameDay." A frequent flyer, the Phanatic has logged miles to Japan, Australia, Mexico and Europe and most notably journeyed to his homeland of the Galapagos Islands.

Dave Raymond, a graduate of the University of Delaware, was the original performer in costume and spent 16 years entertaining as the Phanatic. The current Phanatic, Tom Burgoyne, began his fanatical career in 1989 as Raymond's backup, later joining the Phillies marketing department in 1990. Over the course of his tenure, Tom has written two Phillies books, 18 children's books and a business/leadership book called Pheel the Love. In addition, he's developed a reading program (Phanatic About Reading) that encourages kids to read at least 15 minutes every day. In 2020, Tom was honored with the Richie Ashburn & David Montgomery Special Achievement Award, which is given to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated loyalty, dedication and passion for the game.

Tom is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a bachelor's degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 26-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or “doctored” bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

EXTRA INNINGS: If the score is tied after nine innings, and for each extra inning of those games, the team batting will begin the inning with a runner on second base. The runner on second base at the start of each half-inning has to be the player (or substitute for such player) in the batting order immediately preceding that half-inning's leadoff hitter.

INFIELD POSITIONING: Infielders must be positioned on either side of second base when the pitch is released. All four infielders must have both feet within the infield when the pitcher is on the rubber.

MINIMUM NUMBER OF BATTERS FOR PITCHERS: An amendment to Rule 5.10(g) requires that starting pitchers and relief pitchers must pitch to either a minimum of three batters or the end of a half-inning (with exceptions for incapacitating injury or illness).

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Two-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

PITCH TIMER: The timer will be set at 15 seconds when bases are empty and 20 seconds with runner(s) on base. Hitters will receive one timeout per plate appearance and the pitcher can step off the rubber twice.

ROSTER LIMITS: The active roster limit from Opening Day through Aug. 31 and in postseason games is 26 (max. 13 pitchers), with a 27th player allowed for doubleheaders. From Sept. 1 through the end of the season, all clubs must carry 28 players on the active roster (max. 14 pitchers).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)... A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

- The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

- The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

RAIN RULES

Prior to the start of a game, the right to play is vested in the home club. Once lineup cards have been exchanged, the Umpire-In-Chief shall have the sole authority to determine whether and when play shall be halted and whether and when play shall resume. He shall not call the game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play. He may continue the suspension as long as he believes there is any chance to resume play. The Crew Chief shall at all times try to complete a game. His authority to resume play following one or more suspensions of as much as 30 minutes each shall be absolute and he shall terminate a game only when there appears to be no possibility for completing it.

For series that begin on or after September 1, during the final series of the season between two clubs in the home ballpark of each club – even if the game has not yet begun – MLB's Executive VP of Baseball Operations (or his designee) shall be the sole authority as to whether or not a game shall be started because of unsuitable weather or the unfit condition of the playing field.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

BAYCARE BALLPARK

"If there is a gold standard among Grapefruit League ballparks, it is Clearwater's BayCare Ballpark (formerly Spectrum Field). It is the standard by which older ballparks are evaluated and new ballparks are planned. It's not the biggest or the most historic, but on virtually every level it's the nicest, and it works very well on a functional level: you never, ever feel crushed or crowded, even when you're queuing up for parking or an entrance to the ballpark. We really can't think of a better time at a spring training game than to spend the afternoon at BayCare Ballpark." – springtrainingonline.com

Fans certainly have enjoyed spending the afternoon at BayCare Ballpark since it first opened in 2004. As the Phillies entered their 20th spring at their Clearwater home, total attendance stood at 2,185,383.

Of that total, 113,037 were there in the first year, easily breaking the spring record (94,811 in 1994) at Jack Russell Memorial Stadium, where the Phillies trained starting in 1955. Attendance for the first year there was a meager 16,832.

The Phillies first moved to Clearwater in 1947, replacing the Cleveland franchise, which moved to Tucson, Ariz. Athletic Field, with a seating capacity of 3,000, was their first home. The previous spring, the Phillies trained in Miami Beach, Fla. Because of World War II travel restrictions, the Phillies trained close to home in 1943 (Hershey, Pa.) and 1944-45 (Wilmington, Del.).

Only the Detroit Tigers have been in a Florida location longer, holding camp in Lakeland since 1934. The Tigers defeated the Phillies, 13-1, in their first Clearwater game, March 11, 1947, before a paid crowd of 1,766 and lost the first game at Jack Russell Stadium, 4-2, on March 10, 1955, before 4,209 fans.

In 2004, the Phillies also opened a new home in Philadelphia, Citizens Bank Park. No other club ever unveiled two ballparks in the same year.
